"There is a tremendous relief in knowing that His love to me is utterly realistic; based at every point on prior knowledge of the worst about me, so that no discovery now can disillusion Him about me, in the way I am so often disillusioned about myself, and quench His determination to bless me. There is, certainly, great cause for humility in the thought that He sees all the twisted things about me that my fellow men do not see ... and He sees more corruption in me than that which I see in myself ... He wants me as His friend, and desires to be my friend, and has given His Son to die for me in order to realize this purpose."

J. I. Packer
